

Eight people were hurt on a Ryanair flight due to bad weather. The plane landed in Germany. A two-year-old and a woman were among those injured.

The plane landed safely. Ryanair said sorry and arranged transport to Milan. Three people went to hospital. There were 179 passengers and six crew.