

Honouring Brave UN Workers

The UN honoured 168 workers who died in 2024, 126 from Gaza. They helped Palestine refugees with bravery and kindness.

The Secretary-General said these workers were heroes. The world must remember their sacrifice and protect everyone, including helpers and civilians.

Mr. Guterres praised those in danger and said violence is not normal. He called for justice and no letting off for those who harm others.