

UK Speaks Out for Afghan Women

The UK is upset that the Taliban stops women and girls from going to school in Afghanistan. They say this is bad for Afghanistan's future and economy.

Afghan women struggle with education and healthcare. The UK wants the Taliban to know their rules harm Afghanistan's growth.

The UK is giving money and food to help Afghan people. They hope the Taliban will work with the world for peace and change their ways.