

Thomas Tuchel is England's new coach, replacing Gareth Southgate. Fans are unhappy because England lost to Senegal.

England's team needs a clear plan and better results. They won against weaker teams, but fans want to see their style and identity improve.

Tuchel brought back older players, but it didn't help. Fans are confused. The team needs fresh ideas and younger players.

Harry Kane scores goals for England. Tuchel must find the best spots for players like Jude Bellingham to make the team better.

Tuchel has one year to get ready for the 2026 World Cup. He must find the best team and tactics. Fans want better results and a stronger team.

Tuchel stays positive. He thinks the team can learn from losses. He wants them to get better before the World Cup.

England's games in September against Andorra and Serbia are important for Tuchel to decide on the team.

England needs to improve and give fans hope. Tuchel must work hard to make a strong team for the next World Cup.