

Prison Crowding and Violence

UK prisons are too full and unsafe. This causes more violence. The government is making new plans to make prisons safer.

The government will add 14,000 prison places by 2031 and change rules so bad behaviour means longer stays, helping staff support change.

£40 million will help stop drones and other illegal items in prisons. More police will work to keep staff and prisoners safe.