

Hospital Ward to Close Soon

Ward 7A at Woodland View hospital is closing soon. Families have two weeks to find new care for their loved ones with complex learning disabilities.

The ward is not safe. There are not enough staff and there is violence. The hospital wants to find better places for patients to get care.

Fraser needs to leave soon. His dad is worried about finding care. The hospital and families are making new plans together.