

Six people died near an aid centre in Gaza. They were there for food. The Israeli army said they fired warning shots at people who seemed threatening.

GHF stopped work for safety. Many people need food, but it's dangerous. The UN says the new aid system is unsafe and not enough.

The Israeli army said an air strike killed a Mujahideen Brigades leader. Israel let some aid into Gaza but faced criticism on its distribution.

Over 54,677 people have died in Gaza. Israel wants a new aid system, not using the UN. The UN says its way is fair.
