

Sad News from Michigan

In Michigan, a man drove into a church, shot people, and set it on fire. Four died, eight were hurt. Police shot the man.

The FBI is checking the man's phone and home. The Governor says to be patient and not guess why it happened, as it can be dangerous.

People are praying for peace. Leaders like Trump and Romney spoke about the sadness. The investigation is still happening.