

Sean Combs is in court for serious charges. The judge said he might be banned for making faces at the jury.

Jane said Mr Combs took her on trips, but also asked her to do things she didn't want to do.

Jane said Mr Combs gave her drugs and paid for her home. She felt she had to do what he wanted. Her story will continue in court soon.

Bryana Bongolan said Mr Combs hurt her by lifting her onto a balcony rail. His lawyers say her story has changed.

The court is looking at photos and messages to see if Mr Combs did what he is accused of. The trial is still happening.