

Rory McIlroy had a hard time at the US Open. He started well but ended with four-over-par. He needs to do better next round to win.

JJ Spaun is leading the tournament. He played well with no mistakes and hopes to win his first major tournament.

Robert MacIntyre from Scotland said the course was hard. He was happy with his score. Many players found it tough, with more bogeys than birdies.

Shane Lowry from Ireland had a hard day, scoring nine-over-par. He made a great eagle shot. Other players also found the course tough.

The US Open is tough for golfers. The course is dry and windy, making it harder. Golfers need to play well to win.