

UK Talks About Peace and Poverty

The UK spoke at the UN about how poverty can worsen conflict. They thanked Guyana and want to work together for peace and prosperity.

The UK wants the UN to work together better to stop conflicts early. They support the Peacebuilding Commission's work.

The UK wants women in peace talks. They work with Guyana. Conflict hurts the poor and stops growth. The UK helps the UN support people better.