

Helping People of Determination

The Department of Community Development in Abu Dhabi joined a UN meeting to help people with disabilities. They aim to improve life for everyone.

DCD is working on a plan to make cities better for people with disabilities, starting with Yas Island.

The DCD wants everyone included and listened to. They work to make cities better for all with new ideas and teamwork.