

The International Red Cross says Gaza is worse than "hell on earth." They want the world to help stop the war and save lives.

The Red Cross helps people in wars. They follow rules called the Geneva Conventions. These rules help keep everyone safe during fighting.

The Israeli military and Hamas are fighting. Many people are hurt or have died. The Red Cross wants the fighting to stop and rules to be followed.

People in Gaza are scared and hungry. The Red Cross hospital is busy and not safe. Many are hurt, and staff safety is a worry.

The Red Cross urges leaders to stop the war and help people. They believe peace is possible if everyone works together to end the fighting.

The Red Cross is respected for helping people and making sure war rules are followed. They want peace in Gaza.