

Jobs for Everyone

Wrexham and Flintshire councils want to help more people with learning disabilities find jobs. Only 4.8% have paid jobs now.

The service helps businesses hire people with learning disabilities by offering support and training. It can save money and improve reputation.

Local businesses can share job openings, offer work trials, or host visits. Contact Wrexham and Flintshire Supported Employment Service for more info.