

New Members Join NI Board

Two new members join the Public Sector Transformation Board in Northern Ireland to help improve services with £102 million.

The Board began with £129 million for Health, Justice, Education, and Infrastructure projects. New members will add more knowledge.

The Board and Finance Minister ensure money is used well to make public services better for everyone in Northern Ireland.