

BBC says a city near Tel Aviv in Israel was hit by Iran's missiles after earlier attacks by Israel. People are told to stay alert.

The Israeli Defence Forces said over 200 missiles were fired. They think a long fight with Iran might start. People worry about more attacks soon.

There are explosions and smoke in Tel Aviv. The situation is tense. People are scared and worried about what will happen next.

The United Nations wants leaders to stop fighting and help people in need.
