

Prime Minister Supports Lionesses

The Prime Minister met the Lionesses to wish them luck for Euro 2025 and announced plans for all UK kids to have 2 hours of PE each week.

The government will help schools and clubs work together so all children, including girls and those with disabilities, get the same sports chances.

The Lionesses want more girls to play football. Schools will share sport options to help all kids join in and feel included.