

Scammers took £47 million from HMRC by tricking 100,000 people, but their accounts are safe and they haven't lost any money.

HMRC is telling people their accounts are safe. Phishing is when someone tries to trick you to get your details or money.