

The last hospital in North Gaza closed. Patients and staff moved to another hospital, but bad roads made it hard to move safely.

The hospital is in a dangerous area and has been hit often. Groups like the World Health Organization say hospitals should never be attacked.

Israel said the area is dangerous because of fighting. The hospital was not safe anymore.

Some health centres in Gaza are open. People can't find food and medicine easily because of the fighting. The United Nations is worried.

Israel is fighting in Gaza because of Hamas attacks. Many people have died, and help is not reaching those who need it. It's a tough situation.
