

In Graz, Austria, a school shooting happened. 11 people died, including the shooter. The shooter was a former student who felt bullied.

An attack happened in the morning. Police stopped it in 17 minutes. Nine people died, and many are still hurt.

Austria is very sad. Flags will fly low for three days to remember those who are lost.

School shootings are rare in Austria. Many people own guns. Austria has strict gun rules, but some guns need a licence to buy.
