

A plane crashed in Ahmedabad, India, after take-off. It was going to London with 242 people from India, the UK, Portugal, and Canada.

A crash happened near a doctors' hostel by the airport. There was a loud noise and black smoke. Firefighters and ambulances are helping.

Families are at the site and hospital. A woman said her son is injured but safe. Someone else is looking for their sister-in-law from the flight.