

England wins Women's Rugby World Cup!

England's team is stronger with full-time players. Canada's team isn't fully professional, showing why investing in women's rugby is important.

Ellie Kildunne scored a try, helping England win. Fans loved her celebration. This win is a big step for women's rugby.