

Rayan Cherki is a young football player from France. He scored a great goal against Spain and is seen as one of the best young players.

Cherki plays for Lyon. He started at age seven and became their youngest scorer. He dreams of playing for Real Madrid.

Cherki is great at dribbling with both feet. He scored 12 goals and helped many more. Famous football people say he is special.

Manchester City wants to sign Cherki for next season. He can play behind the striker or on the wing.

Cherki is happy about his future but staying calm. He knows people are watching. He wants to play well and get better.

People are happy to see how Cherki will do if he joins Manchester City. He has a bright future, and many fans are cheering for him.