

Muckamore Hospital Case Update

Seven people are charged for being mean to patients at Muckamore Abbey Hospital. Four are nurses. The case is delayed to check CCTV footage.

The hospital in Northern Ireland is accused of being mean and not caring for patients. The case will continue in February.

Four nurses are not working now because of the charges. There are 15 people in total who might be in trouble for what happened at the hospital.