

Ward for Learning Needs to Close

Woodland View hospital ward in North Ayrshire will close. It did not meet standards. It helps people with autism and complex needs.

Six people must move soon. Moving people with complex needs can be hard. The ward had staff issues and problems with violence.

The Minister said sorry for the stress. The ward will close as it can't give the right care. Families and patients are upset and worried.

