

Mencap Talks About NHS Health Plan

Mencap is glad the NHS's 10-year plan sees the big health problems for people with learning disabilities.

People with learning disabilities often die younger. Over 2,000 are in mental health units but need homes, says Mencap.

More work is needed to explain the plan. People with learning disabilities should help shape changes to make them fair and helpful.