

Better care helps people live longer.

Dr Dawn Cavanagh says her son Jack, with a learning disability, wasn't taken seriously when ill. She feels society doesn't care enough.

Professor Todd says hospitals need to do more for people with learning disabilities. The Welsh government plans to improve healthcare for them.