

Help for People in Gaza

The UN wants more help to send food and medicine to Gaza. Tom Fletcher says people are suffering and needs borders opened for aid.

A meeting aims to stop fighting in Gaza, end attacks, and free people taken by Hamas. Many, including children, have been hurt or killed.

Gaza's health system is struggling. Hospitals are closing, and people can't get help. The UN is trying to bring supplies but needs more support.