

News from 2016

In 2016, Korea and Micronesia agreed to follow rules to help people with disabilities. This is called ratifying the CRPD.

The CRPD helps people with disabilities have equal rights. By 2016, 172 countries agreed. The aim is for all countries to agree.

Events like World Braille Day and World Down Syndrome Day help people learn about disabilities and support everyone.