

Interest rates stay at 4%

Inflation means prices go up. It was 3.8% in August, higher than the 2% target. The Bank uses interest rates to control it.

Interest rates affect mortgages and savings. Mortgage rates fell since August. Savers may need to switch accounts for better returns.