

The Attorney General wants special lawyers to join a new group to help with important government legal cases.

The group will help with legal cases, train junior lawyers, and improve how the government handles legal issues.

Apply by 3 July 2025. Work for the government and get permission for other jobs.