

Novak Djokovic, age 38, plays Jannik Sinner in the French Open semi-finals. Sinner is 15 years younger and won their last three matches.

Sinner and Alcaraz, born after 2000, are doing well in tennis. Alcaraz faces Musetti in the semi-final, having beaten him five times before.

Djokovic wants to win his 25th major title. He is playing well, winning nine matches in a row and recently got his 100th tour-level title.

Sinner has won 19 Grand Slam matches in a row. He aims to be the first Italian man to win the French Open since 1976.

Alcaraz is happy after winning his match. He wants to win against Musetti. Musetti has practised his serve and wants to do better.
