

Big Protests in the US

Many in the US are protesting against President Trump. They are unhappy and want to support democracy. Protests are in big cities like New York.

People are peacefully protesting with signs like "Democracy not Monarchy". They worry about Trump's power and want to protect everyone's rights.

People in the UK and Canada support protests for fairness and change in the US. They want everyone to be treated well.