

Big Events on 18 June

In 1972, a plane from London to Brussels crashed. Sadly, all 118 people on board died. It was the UK's worst air crash.

In 1979, US President Carter and Soviet leader Brezhnev signed a treaty to cut down on weapons.

In 1965, the government set a limit on how much alcohol drivers could drink to make roads safer.