

The UK helps Bangladesh prepare for storms using smart tools to warn people early and plan better, protecting homes and jobs near the sea.

Cyclone Remal made 120,000 people leave their homes. 30 risky places were found. The goal is to use this AI model across the country.