

New Windrush Commissioner

Reverend Clive Foster is the first Windrush Commissioner. He will help people affected by the Windrush scandal get justice for three years.

Yvette Cooper says Reverend Foster is a good choice for his work with the Windrush community. He wants to bring change and listen to those affected.

Reverend Foster supports celebrating Windrush contributions. The government has a fund to help those affected by the Windrush scandal.