

Formula 1 race in Montreal, Canada, 13-15 June. Listen on BBC Radio or follow on BBC Sport website.

McLaren drivers Piastri and Norris are doing well. Some think McLaren should focus on one driver to win the title.

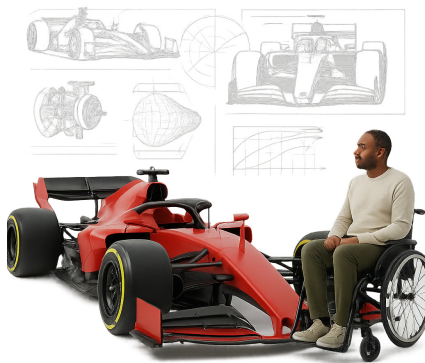

Teams struggle when focusing on one driver. McLaren lets both drivers race fairly, hoping this helps them win.

The Wall of Champions at the Canadian Grand Prix is tough. Many famous drivers crash there because it's fast and tricky.

In the UK, only Silverstone hosts F1 races. More races are tough due to money and track rules. Italy and the USA have more races.

Formula 1 changes rules to make cars safer and better, but some think keeping rules the same could make racing fairer.

Ask the BBC Sport team your questions about Formula 1 races and drivers.