

Samaritans to close 100 branches.

Closing branches may hurt local communities. Volunteers want a vote as they don't trust the charity's leaders.

The charity wants volunteers to work from home, but some worry it won't work. They feel ignored and think closing branches will make helping harder.