

Ukraine's Operation Spider's Web hit Russian planes with drones. Many planes were damaged. Ukraine calls it a big success. Russia is quiet about it.

Drones hit important Russian planes with cruise missiles. Flown from far away, Ukraine showed they can hit targets from a distance.

Ukraine damaged Russia's A-50 planes. These planes spot threats. Replacing them is tough for Russia, causing a big problem.

Ukraine used trucks that looked like houses to hide drones. This helped them surprise Russia and attack planes.

The attack shows Ukraine is strong and can hurt Russia's image. Ukraine's leader says Russia is not as strong as they seem. Russia might strike back.
