

Sudanese Refugees in Chad

Over 1.2 million people left Sudan for Chad due to fighting that started in April 2023.

Fighting in Sudan is between the Sudanese Armed Forces and Rapid Support Forces. People have lost family and places like hospitals have been attacked.

The UN needs more money to help refugees. Many are women and children needing food, water, and safe places. More help is needed.