

The prime minister will check facts about grooming gangs. Baroness Casey said this is needed after looking at the problem.

Sir Keir Starmer agreed to start an inquiry. He read the report and will ensure it happens, asking everyone involved to share what they know.

Some people are upset about the delay in the inquiry. Kemi Badenoch thinks Sir Keir should have started it sooner and say sorry for the delay.