

The Royal Navy's 'Swiftsure' submarine had its fin removed to recycle 90% of it.

The Submarine Dismantling Project is safely taking apart submarines. They learn from 'Swiftsure' to help the environment and save money.

200 people work in Rosyth. They will finish taking apart 'Swiftsure' by 2026. This helps keep the UK safe and cares for the environment.