

A man in Graz, Austria, shot and killed nine people, then himself. Twelve were hurt, and one more died in hospital. Austria is very sad.

The person who did the shooting went to the school before. Police found a goodbye letter. They are finding out why he did it. He had a gun licence.

In Austria, you need a licence for guns. Some are banned. School shootings are rare, but this was the worst in recent history.

People in Austria feel shocked. A vigil was held for victims. Police acted fast to stop the shooter. Austria is usually a safe place.
