

Cookies help the BBC website work. Some are always on. You can choose to turn others on or off. They make your online experience better.

Ivan Toney moved to Saudi Arabia but will still play for England. The coach picked him because he scored many goals.

Toney scored 30 goals in 44 games in Saudi Arabia. He helped his team win a big trophy. He says he always stays positive and believes in his skills.

Famous footballers play in Saudi Arabia. The league isn't very strong but has good players. Toney likes playing there and thinks it's a good experience.

Toney started at Northampton, played in different leagues, joined Brentford, did well, faced a ban, but kept going.

Toney moved to Saudi Arabia for more money and new experiences. He enjoys learning about different cultures and is happy with his choice.

The coach wants to see how Toney plays in the team. Playing in Saudi Arabia helps him get used to hot weather for future games. Everyone is excited to see him play.