

Mayor warns Labour about risks.

Burnham said Labour needs a plan to win against Reform. The party should connect with people and not ignore its problems.

Some in Labour think Burnham's comments are too much. Others agree the party should listen more. Burnham might try to be leader one day.