

PM Meets President Macron

The Prime Minister and President Macron talked about peace in the Middle East at the G7 Summit. They want G7 countries to work together for peace.

A UK-France meeting in July will discuss important ideas, migration, and the Channel situation to find better solutions.

They want to work on defence and security. They will talk about Ukraine at the G7 and agree to support peace and pressure Putin.