

Tatjana Maria, 37, from Germany, reached the Queen's final, beating Madison Keys. She's the oldest woman to reach a WTA 500 final.

Maria won and called it a "dream come true." Her family was there to celebrate, making it extra special.

Maria will play Zheng Qinwen or Amanda Anisimova in the final. She loves tennis and says, "never give up." Her daughters watch her play.