

Sport Can Change the World

Sport brings people together, helps the economy, and makes things fairer for all, including women and those treated unfairly.

Sport can make things better. It can solve problems and bring people together. Let's all work together to use sport to help.

Special days like World Football Day on 25 May celebrate sport. Sport makes people feel included and happy.