

Housing delayed for 14 in Guernsey.

La Vieille Plage is being built with help from Health and Social Care. Builders and architects are making sure the homes are safe and supportive.

The GHA wants to build homes where people can live independently and feel happy. They know it's important to do it right.