

Help for British People in Israel

The UK is organising flights for British people to leave Israel and OPTs. People must register to leave, and urgent cases go first.

British Nationals and close family can register for flights. They need valid papers. Only those contacted by the government should go to the airport.

Pay for seats when booking. Get money back if no seat. Flights from Egypt and Jordan still running. Plans may change quickly.